1. Lonely the boat,
sailing at sea,
tossed on a cold,
stormy night;

A faint, light gray background illustration of a sailboat is visible. It features a single, large, curved sail and a vertical mast, positioned behind the text.

cruel the sea
which seemed so wide,
with waves so high.

This single ship
sailed the deep sea,
straight into the gale;
O Lord,
great is the peril,
dangers to all assail.

2. Strong winds arose in all their rage,
tossing the tiny lone boat;
waves billowing high,
tossing the boat,
lost and afloat.

The sailor stood
all alone,
wondering what to do;
O Lord,
so helpless was he,
wondering what to do.

3. Trembling with fear, deep in despair,
looking for help all around,
the sailor saw
light from above.
“Help can be found;

my God is here
in my small boat,
standing by my side;
O I trust in the Savior,
now in my life abide.

4. “Pleading for your mercy, O Lord,
even a sinner like me;
command, O Lord,
calm to the sea,
as in Galilee!

Please save my life
from all danger,
grant a peaceful life;
O please
be merciful, Lord,
in times of calm and strife.

5. “Storms in our lives,
cruel and cold,
surely will arise again,
threatening lives,
threatening us
on life’s wild sea.

Powerful and great,
God's hand is there,
firmly in control.
O Lord, calm peace
comes from you,
peace comes to my lone soul.”
