

Call to Worship

Leader: Jesus of Nazareth was more than a man.
He was the fulfillment of all that God had promised.

People: His visit with Moses and Elijah on the mountain identifies him as a special messenger of God.

Leader: He came as God's Son who was willing to face his "exodus" through death, which would give deliverance from sin to all who follow him.

People: We celebrate our Lord's transfiguration with praise for being the fulfillment of God's promise.

Prayer of Confession:

We are subject to human frailties, Father, and so our weariness, at times, makes us numb to the glory of your only Son who is our Redeemer.

That weariness affects our faith, and we find ourselves with good intentions, but not enough spiritual insight.

Forgive us for neglecting the significance of who your Son is, and why he came to earth.

May his glory flood our lives, convincing us of your redemptive love for us.

In his name we pray. Amen.

I believe in God
the Father Almighty, maker of heaven and earth;

And in Jesus Christ
his only Son our Lord:
who was conceived by the Holy Spirit,
born of the Virgin Mary,
suffered under Pontius Pilate,
was crucified, dead,
and buried;

the third day he rose
from the dead;
he ascended into heaven,
and sitteth at the right hand
of God the Father Almighty; from thence he shall come to judge the quick and the dead.

I believe in the Holy Spirit,
the holy catholic church,
the communion of saints,
the forgiveness of sins,
the resurrection of the body,
and the life everlasting. Amen.

Glory Be to the Father

WORDS: Lesser Doxology, 3rd-4th cent.

71

Glory be to the Father
and to the Son
and to the Holy Ghost;
as it was in the beginning,
is now and ever shall be,
world without end.
Amen. Amen.
