Billy James Foote

I'm forgiven because
you were forsaken.
I'm accepted;
you were condemned.

I'm alive and well,
your Spirit is within me because
you died
and rose again.

Refrain:

Amazing love, how can it be
that you, my King,
would die for me?

Amazing love, I know it's true;
and it's my joy to honor you.

In all I do I honor you.

A wooden cross is positioned in the center of the image, set against a clear blue sky with scattered white clouds. The cross is made of dark wood and has some frayed, reddish-brown material hanging from its horizontal beam. The text is overlaid on the cross and sky.

you were forsaken.
I'm accepted;
you were condemned.

A wooden cross is positioned in the lower-left quadrant of the image. The vertical post is dark green, and the horizontal beam is a lighter green. The cross is set against a bright blue sky with scattered white clouds. The text is overlaid on the right side of the cross and the sky.

I'm alive and well,
your Spirit is within me because
you died
and rose again.

Refrain:

Amazing love, how can it be
that you, my King,
would die for me?

Amazing love, I know it's true;
and it's my joy to honor you.

A wooden cross stands against a bright blue sky with scattered white clouds. The cross is made of dark wood and has several colorful ribbons tied to its horizontal beam. The ribbons are in shades of red, orange, and yellow, and they appear to be blowing in the wind. The text is overlaid on the right side of the cross.
