

Homecoming 1998

Across the Century With Beulah Moore McCoy

This picture shows the family of John Richardson Moore, about 1901

Shown are wife Allie, son Earl Frederick and daughter Beulah

(These family photos were placed in the Florida Archives several years ago and are now on the Internet as part of their growing collection of digital photographs from Florida's history)

Taken about 1907, this picture shows the Moore family on the porch of the family home

Shown are John, wife Allie, Beulah and Earl Frederick

This photo postcard shows an older Beulah, Earl and younger brother Walter with mother Allie

Hale School Students - 1910

Beulah is on right in second row, Earl is on left of front row, Arvah Hopikins is on left back row, and Lilla Burns is third from right on back row

Hale or Bethel School Students - 1912?

Beulah is on the right side of back row, next to Ida Burns, Winnie Burns is on the left side of back row

1914/15 Freshman Class at Leon High School

Beulah is the second person on the front row

1915 Sophomore Class at Leon High Beulah is in the third row with bow in her hair

Graduation from Leon High School
- 1918

This picture, taken in 1923, shows Thelma and Malcolm McCoy, children of Beulah Moore Mccoy

C.C. Smith and Lilla Burns

C.C. Smith was a lay person from Tritinity who served as pastor at Bethel from 1921-1931; Lilla began the writing of Bethel's History in 1947

Dr. W.F. Dunkle, pastor at Bethel 1944-1947

The writing of Bethel Church history was begun in 1947 by Dr. Dunkle and Lilla Burns for Bethel's "centennial"

"It was during the pastorate of W.F. Dunkle that the church was finished and refurnished. Later the concrete porches and steps were built. Later still a stove was installed and the wiring and light fixtures were put in."

Bethel Methodist Church in early 1950's

(Note: picture appears to have been taken before the S.S. rooms were added....from the Florida Archives photo collection)

Oredia, Jack and Lea Hodge

Notice the windows that swing out for ventilation

The Family of Calvin Williams

W. Calvin Williams was pastor at Bethel from 1958 until his death in 1963.
Wife Lucene served as minister from 1963-1965

Wedding of Jim & Joan Reichart, Dec 20, 1958

(Note "slatted" pews, windows behind pulpit)

Easter Sunday - 1959, W. Calvin Williams, Pastor;

Baptism of children & infants;

"Notice Bare Windows in back of preacher - before remodeled

Palm Sunday 1960, W. Calvin Williams, Pastor

Charlie & Joyce Strange - wedding

Homecoming 1962 Celebrating 115 Birthday of Bethel Methodist Church

Notice: 2 doors at rear of church - each opening directly to the outside, windows swing open

(photos by Mike Williams)

Homecoming 1962

Dinner on the Grounds

Bethel Sanctuary in 1963

Notice: announcement board, dark molding, drape over windows, communion table in front of altar

Bethel Methodist Church - 1963

(Note: screen doors, painted brickwork)

A color photo of Bethel in the early 1960's

Easter 1964

Lucene Williams became minister in Dec 1963 on the death of Calvin Williams, serving until June 1965

Bethel United Methodist Church - 1968

Bethel United Methodist Church - 1972

The Narthex was added and the interior remodeled in that year

Bethel United Methodist Church 1974

The steeple was added in 1972, given in memory of Bryan Palmer by his wife Josephine

Easter 1973

Children's Choir with Rev. Richard Fife

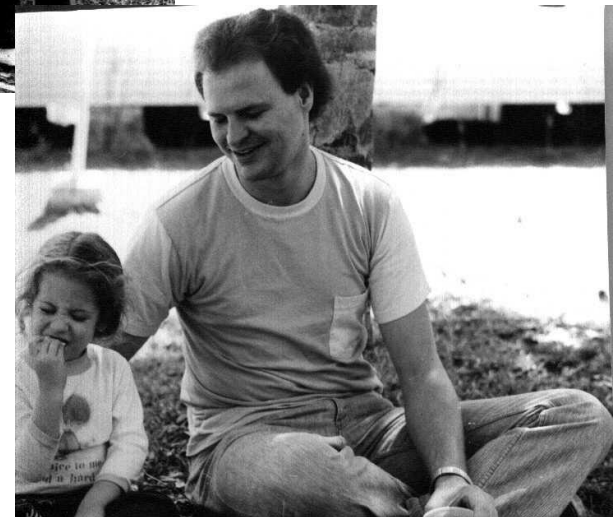

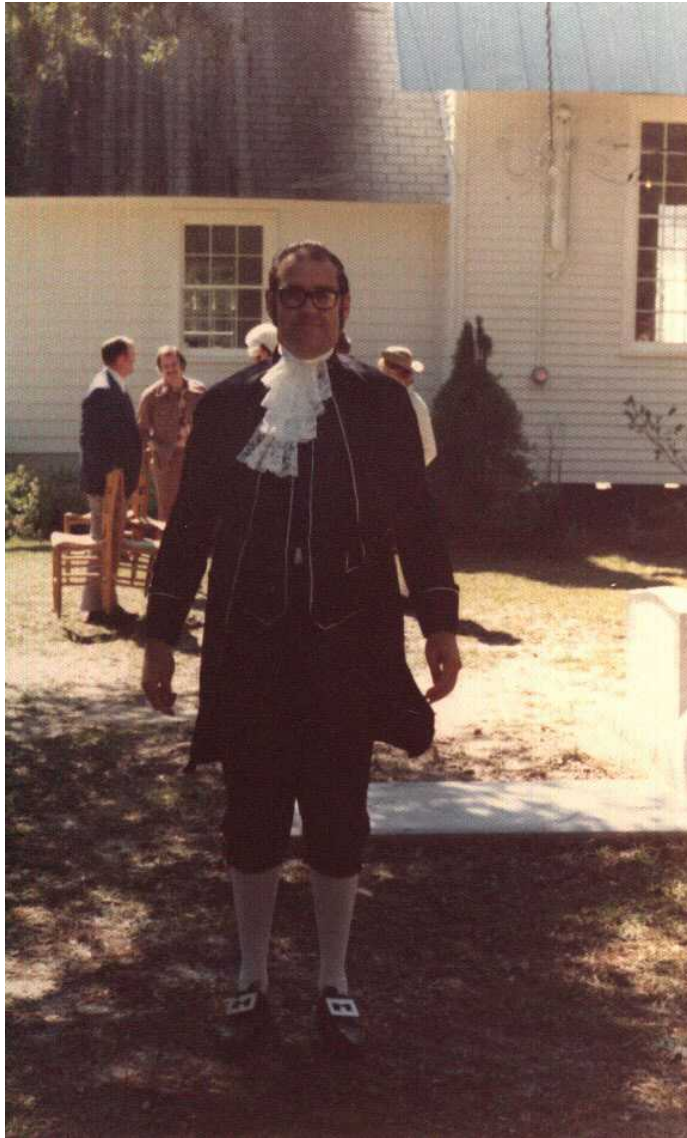

Easter 1973 - Youth & Young Adult Choir

Halloween 1973

Richard Fife was minister - this picture shows several current members

Rev. Jesse Baker was pastor at Bethel from 1975-1978

He is shown here as a Circuit Riding preacher for Homcoming 1976 during our nation's Bicentennial

and Miss Beulah was there too in traditional dress for the pioneer farm family that she represents

At one time Bethel had sent more persons into the ministry than any other church its size in the conference...Homer Norman was one of several that came from Calvin Williams congregation, shown here with Lucene Williams during Homecoming 1979

Homecoming 1979
in front of the Youth Building

Miss Beulah at Homecoming in 1979 from right, Miss Beulah, daughter Faye, and Hazel Fowler enjoying a Christmas celebration in the Youth Building

Rev. Leslie Jackson and wife Addie

Rev. Jackson served as pastor in 1978 - during the time he was here he built the counter in the youth building and insulated and paneled the parsonage walls. Addie played the organ.

Rev. Russell Bean was pastor from 1979-1982 shown here with wife Anita..Russell will be remembered for leading the congregation in the construction of the fellowship hall.

Howard Almand, shown here at the rededication of the pulpit in 1980, went into the ministry in 1965 out of Bethel Church

Miss Beulah
and brother Earl on Easter, 1980

Homecoming 1980

Christmas 1980

Miss Beulah
with Bishop Hunt

at the dedication of the Fellowship Hall in 1983

November Birthdays (1983)

Miss Beulah, daughter Thelma and "Little Robert" with Rev. Ray Honaker

Easter 1986

Advent 1986

Mrs. Brumby,
Miss Beulah and another generation

Heritage Sunday 1987

Sharing Memories - Heritage Sunday 1988

Halloween 1988

Christmas 1988

Easter 1990

The Boy Who Believed - 1990

Rev. Joe Stiles with Robert Brown, Stacy Jones (great grand daughter of Miss Beulah), Emily Tucker and Robbie Tucker

At Play in the Fields of the Lord

Miss Beulah has kept the highway bright with flowers for many years

Rev. Magrey DeVega and wife Jessica

Magrey began serving as Bethel's pastor in June 1998. We look forward to his leading Bethel, and Miss Beulah, into the next Century